§ 155.01 HOUSE NUMBERING PLAN.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the House Numbering Plan.
(Ord. 376, passed 6-10-1957)

§ 155.02 UNIFORM NUMBERS.

All buildings and building sites within the city shall be numbered in a uniform plan, and all buildings shall have displayed on front or street side thereof the numbers as may be designated therefor under the plan and the provisions of this chapter.
(Ord. 376, passed 6-10-1957)

§ 155.03 DESIGNATION.

Buildings and building sites on streets running north and south or northerly and southerly shall be numbered northwardly and southwardly from East Pearl Street and West Pearl Street. Buildings and building sites on streets running east and west or easterly and westerly shall be numbered eastwardly and westwardly from Walnut Street extended southwardly in a straight line to the Overhead Bridge crossing the New York Central Railroad. Even numbers shall be used for the northerly and easterly sides of streets and odd numbers for the southerly and westerly sides. In numbering, 100 numbers shall be allowed for each block northwardly and southwardly from East and West Pearl Street, and for each block eastwardly and westwardly from Walnut Street. One number shall ordinarily be allowed for each 25 feet of frontage, whether improved or vacant, provided that each existing house and tenement or building entrance with a less front than 25 feet shall receive a number. The Mayor shall have charge of house numbering and is hereinafter referred to as the Director.

(Ord. 376, passed 6-10-1957)

§ 155.04 DISPLAY OF NUMBERS.

On notification by the Director of the proper number of a building, the owner of the building shall cause that number to be placed and continuously maintained in a conspicuous place on the front of the building. If a building stands back more than 45 feet from a street line, the number shall be conspicuously displayed at or near the walk, driveway, or common entrance to the building at the street line, and so placed as to be easily legible from the sidewalk.
(Ord. 376, passed 6-10-1957) Penalty, see § 155.99

§ 155.05 CHANGE IN HOUSE NUMBERING.

The Director shall be authorized to change the house numbering of any street or part of a street or of any individual building or buildings when the change shall be necessary by reason of readjustment of any kind, inaccuracy or mistake, or for any other cause.
(Ord. 376, passed 6-10-1957)

§ 155.06 REMOVING OR ALTERING NUMBERS.

It shall be unlawful for any person to remove, alter, or deface any house number, properly assigned or placed on or near a building, or to place or retain on any building any number other than the one duly assigned by the Director.

(Ord. 376, passed 6-10-1957) Penalty, see § 155.99

§ 155.99 PENALTY.

Whoever violates any provision of this chapter for which no penalty is otherwise provided, shall be fined not more than $1,000. A separate offense shall be deemed committed on each day that a violation occurs or continues.
